Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC). The Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC) registration form is now live on OPGS' website. The GIRC provides technical assistance and information about resources that improve community services in the District of Columbia for its "customers" - District government, nonprofit, and faith-based representatives. The primary focus is to assist customers who either lack computer access or the knowledge to best use their existing computer technology to strengthen their organizations. The GIRC is open Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 10 a.m.-12 p.m. and 2 p.m.-4 p.m., by appointment only. For additional information call 202-727-8900.

Funding Alert: If you would like to post a free event/resource announcement in the Funding Alert, contact Pat Henry at pat.henry@dc.gov. All back issues of the funding alert can be found at www.opgs.dc.gov.

District Grants Clearinghouse: District agency grant opportunities are listed in the Funding Alert. These opportunities can be found on the Office of Partnerships and Grant Services website at www.opgs.dc.gov. Additional Funding Resources and Announcements

Pro Bono Professional Services. The Taproot Foundation connects nonprofit organizations with the services of professional consultants on a pro-bono basis through its Service Grants program. Each service grant has a minimum value of $45,000 and is delivered by a team of five to six business professionals to nonprofit organizations in Washington, D.C. To qualify for a grant, applicants must be a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization or a public school and work within one of the foundation's program areas (i.e., the arts, education, the environment, health, and social services). To be eligible for a grant, organizations also must have at least three full-time employees and an annual budget of at least $350,000. The foundation will be holding an informational webinar for grantseekers on August 5, 2015, at 2:30 P.M. and registration is required. For more information visit <https://www.taprootfoundation.org/>.

What Your Nonprofit Needs to Know About the New Overtime Regulations. The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center, in conjunction with the law firm of Littler Mendelson, will be hosting a free workshop for nonprofits about how to deal with the new overtime regulations July 21, from 9:00 A.M. – 11:00 A.M. at Littler Mendelson, 815 Connecticut Ave., NW. Last month, the Department of Labor published new rules that change the rules regarding which employees are eligible for overtime pay. Under these rules, beginning December 1, 2016, employees who earn less than $913 per week ($47,476 per year) are automatically eligible for overtime pay when they work more than 40 hours a week, regardless of what their job duties are. This new rule could have a significant impact on your nonprofit's personnel costs. At the workshop, the facilitator will review the difference between exempt and non-exempt employees; what the new overtime regulations provide and how they will impact your organization; what steps your organization should be taking now so you are ready for December 1; and how these changes will impact your responsibilities under other federal and local laws, including the DC Wage Theft Prevention Act. To register and for more information visit Workshop If you have any questions, please contact Stanley Augustin at saugustin@dcbbar.org or 202-737-4700, ext. 3293.

Free Webinar: Your Organization's Responsibilities Under HIPAA – What You Need to Know. D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center is hosting the Your Organization's Responsibilities Under HIPAA – What You Need to Know webinar on June 29, 2016, Noon to 1p.m. HIPAA is an important law protecting the privacy of an individual's medical records. Because most people receive their health and disability insurance through their employer, this has left many nonprofit employers wondering – “What are my organization's responsibilities under HIPAA?” This webinar is designed to help your organization know what to do to remain in compliance. Find out what steps must an employer take to protect the security of employees' medical records, including insurance information; what medical records an employer can request if an employee requests sick leave, long term disability, leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) or an accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act; and with whom an employer may share such information both inside and outside the organization. If you have any questions, please contact Stanley Augustin at 202-737-4700, ext. 3293 or saugustin@dcbbar.org. To register visit HIPAA Workshop

Information Workshops "Who's A Washintonian" Grant. HumanitiesDC is hosting two workshops to inform 501(c)(3) organizations of the opportunity to receive our "Who's A Washintonian" Grant. Non-profits will be eligible to be awarded $5000 in grant funding. The workshops will be held on June 29 at Tenley-Friendship Neighborhood Library 4450 Wisconsin Ave NW, register at Registration June 29 and July 6, at Dorothy I. Height/Benning Neighborhood Library 3935 Benning Rd NE, register at Registration July 6 .

Criminal Justice Coordinating Council's Bridging Research to Practice Series. Evaluation in the District of Columbia: Goals, Value, and Low-Cost Evaluation panel discussion will cover (a) the basics of evaluation, and how it can be beneficial to your organization or agency, (b) how to apply findings and (c) how to undertake a low cost evaluation. The session will be held on Thursday, July 28, 10:00 am – 11:30am 441 4th St NW, Room #1117. For more information contact Ellen.McCann@dc.gov .

All Things Nonprofit Workshop. The Office of Partnerships and Grant Services and the Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs Small Business Resource Center are cohosting an All Things Nonprofit Workshop on July 21 and August 18, 2016. The schedule is as follows:

Date: July 21, 2016

Time: 9:00 - 11:00 am

Location: 1100 4th Street, SW - Rm E200

Date: August 18, 2016

Time: 9:30 - 11:30 am

Location: 441 4th Street, NW - Rm 805S

During these workshops you will learn how to start a non-profit business (corporate registration, licensing, and tax registration) and also how to apply for grants available for non-profit organizations. Meet the experts from DC Government agencies, non-profit foundations, and the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center. For more information 202/442-4538 or 202/727-8900. Lacrosse Grants. US Lacrosse Foundation is accepting applications for 2016 physical education lacrosse workshop grants and soft lacrosse equipment grants. Soft lacrosse is a co-ed version of lacrosse that utilizes plastic sticks with specially molded-heads and a large, soft ball. This modified equipment is designed for youth to achieve quick success executing the basics skills of lacrosse (cradling, scooping, passing, catching and shooting). No additional protective equipment is required. The US Lacrosse Soft Lacrosse Equipment Grant, targeted for schools and community-based organizations, provides a set of 30 soft lacrosse sticks, 30 soft lacrosse balls, one (1) copy of the US Lacrosse Physical Education Curriculum Guide and (1) copy of the Teaching Soft-Stick Lacrosse DVD. Physical Education Workshop Grant provides in-service training for up to 30 educators in a school district or school system. In addition to the in-service training (3 hours in length), this grant awards a set of soft lacrosse equipment to each school that is represented at the workshop. Participating educators will leave the workshop feeling confident and able to teach students how to play co-ed soft lacrosse in an age-appropriate and safe manner. Deadline for applications is November 2016. For information visit <http://www.uslacrosse.org/resources/programs-grants/soft-stick-program.aspx> .
