How to Handle Charitable Contributions. The DC Bar is hosting a webinar on How to Handle Charitable Contributions on Tuesday, November 15 from 12 noon to 1:00 pm. Between now and year's end, most nonprofits will receive a flurry of contributions as well as income from special fundraising events. The IRS has special rules for how to acknowledge those contributions. Do you know them? This webinar will discuss the IRS rules for acknowledging and receipting donations, including gifts of cash, stock, real estate, vehicles and other property. It will also discuss the rules dealing with donated services. Finally, it will discuss what a nonprofit must include in a receipt, particularly when dealing with fundraising events. If you have any questions about the webinar contact Stanley Augustin at saugustin@dcb.org or a (202) 737-4700 ext. 3293. To register visit <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/1394396626425944834>

Call for Community Grant Reviewers - 2016 AmeriCorps State Competitive Grant Competition.

SERVE DC – The Mayor's Office on Volunteerism is seeking Community Grant Reviewers for its 2016 AmeriCorps State Competitive Grant Competition. A grant reviewer is an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues in the national service field, learn more about the grant-making process, develop your grant-writing skills, and contribute your knowledge and experience to Serve DC's efforts to select high-quality Washington, DC-based programs for AmeriCorps funding. This is a volunteer opportunity. Qualified reviewers will be selected to ensure there is a diverse group that has experience with national service or community-based programs, and grant writing or performance management. Reviewers may be community service practitioners, educators, college students, national service alumni, people working in foundations, individuals working on public policy issues, or people who work for organizations affiliated with AmeriCorps, Senior Corps, or other national service programs. To apply please email your resume to Pamela Weinberg at pamela.weinberg@dc.gov by 5:00pm on Friday, November 4.

The New Overtime Regulations – What Your Nonprofit Needs to Know. D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center is hosting The New Overtime Regulations – What Your Nonprofit Needs to Know training on November 9, from 12:30 pm to 3:30 pm. at DLA Piper, 500 8th Street, NW on. In May, the Department of Labor published new regulations that change the rules regarding which employees are eligible for overtime pay. Beginning December 1, 2016, employees who earn less than $913 per week ($47,476 per year) are automatically eligible for overtime pay when they work more than 40 hours a week, regardless of what their job duties are. Only doctors, lawyers, teachers, and a few other classes of employees are not subject to this new rule. In addition, this dollar amount will be automatically adjusted every three years, in order to reflect increases in the cost of living. This new rule could have a significant impact on your nonprofit's personnel costs. To help nonprofits understand these new requirements, this seminar will deal with the new overtime regulations. We will review what the new overtime regulations provide and how they will impact your organization; the difference between exempt and non-exempt employees; what counts as work hours for purposes of the regulations; how to determine a salaried employee's rate of pay; what steps your organization should be taking to get ready for December 1; and how these changes will impact your responsibilities under other federal and local laws. This seminar is designed for executive directors, human resource directors, office administrators and other nonprofit staff and volunteers responsible for human resources. For more information and to register visit <https://comms.dlapiper.com/5/1487/landing-pages/accept-blank-co-sponsor.asp?sid=5f55cbc6-60aa-43ef-8616-9c94e76bb991>

Nonprofit Service Grant Program. The Taproot Foundation makes grants of professional consulting services, called Service Grants, through their in-kind Service Grant Program valued at $45,000. Every Service Grant is delivered pro bono by a team of 5-6 business professionals who volunteer their time and expertise to help a nonprofit in their community. The Taproot Foundation's projects provide high-potential nonprofits in the Washington, D.C. metro area with the tools and services your nonprofit needs to strengthen your organizations and serve your communities. Their teams deliver excellent services, customized to meet your specific objectives and help you advance your mission. Dead line to submit an application is December 1. FUNDING ALERT

Raise Money by Crowdfunding. Raise Money by Crowdfunding your program on GrantsWE.fund. Crowdfunding opportunities start at $500 and without limit to nonprofits, public agencies, businesses, and individuals to help raise additional funds for projects, programs, and activities in a wide range of areas. This free and proven thirty-to-ninety-day fundraising method is intended to enable organizations and individuals to open up their fundraising campaign to the world at large to contribute financially to their projects. On GrantsWE.fund, you will be able to load pictures and videos to portray your cause. Once your project goes live, prospective donors can view your campaign and make contributions. Your project may appeal to the general public, individual philanthropists, small businesses, or organizations looking to make donations. For more information visit <https://www.grantswe.fund/>.

Pro Bono Community Design Services. The Washington Architectural Foundation (WAF) is providing in-kind grants to Washington, DC, Maryland, and Virginia nonprofit organizations for the preliminary architectural planning of facilities. This program is intended to assist organizations that lack the budget for professional design services. Grantees receive pro bono design services from a volunteer architect. Design services are primarily intended for nonprofits in the District of Columbia, although projects in the Washington, DC Metropolitan Area are also considered. WAF can help both mature and emerging groups meet housing, accessibility, health care, education, homeless services, artistic, cultural, and community development needs at the neighborhood level. Projects have ranged from highly complex ones like the recent volunteer-led transformation of eight public school libraries on Capitol Hill which now serve as efficient, accessible centers of learning to numerous small projects helping clients with space planning, accessibility, and other design and building challenges. Working directly with client organizations, design services volunteers can prepare preliminary designs and offer technical assistance including cost estimates, zoning analysis, programming, and presentation drawings. For more information visit <http://www.aiadc.com/program/community-design-services>

Updated Legal Alert: Election Season Rules for 501(c)(3) Organizations. With the 2016 elections just a few months away, political campaigns are in full swing, and the IRS is poised to vigorously pursue any complaints made against nonprofits regarding improper political activity. Nonprofit organizations exempt from tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including churches and other religious organizations, are prohibited from intervening on behalf of, or in opposition to, candidates for local, state or national office. The stakes are high: a nonprofit that violates the rule against political intervention is subject to an excise tax on the amount expended on the campaign activity; more seriously, the organization risks losing its tax-exempt status. It is important that nonprofits understand the complex rules and highly nuanced distinctions employed by the IRS in enforcing its rules. The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center has updated its detailed legal alert to help guide you through this potential minefield. For more information about the rules regarding impermissible campaigning, read Monitoring Your 501\(c\)\(3\) Organization's Activities With Respect to Political Campaigns.
