NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS # DCRL-2013-U-0038

FY 2013 Family Treatment Court Transitional Housing

Pursuant to the Child and Family Services Grant-Making Amendment Act of 2008, D.C. Law 17-199, effective July 18, 2008 (D.C. Official Code § 4-1303.03(a-1)), the District of Columbia Child and Family Services Agency (“CFSA”) invites qualified applicants to submit applications for grant funding to support a transitional housing and supportive services program to serve families who have completed the residential component of the Family Treatment Court (FTC) and are preparing to transition into continuing care. The FTC is a comprehensive court-supervised treatment program funded through CFSA and administered through the Department of Health’s Addiction Prevention and Recovery Administration (APRA). Grant monies will be used for transitional housing and supportive services to be utilized by eligible participants referred from the Family Treatment Court. These funds will subsidize the cost of supportive services, security deposits, rent for up to one year and furniture (where needed).

Eligibility: Applications will be accepted only from non-profit community-based organizations which have demonstrated abilities to meet the needs identified in the Request for Applications (RFA), and who are able to commit to implementing the program measures over the grant period. Organizations may partner together to offer separate but coordinated components of the program, but must identify a lead applicant. Applicants must demonstrate commitment to implementing the program measures over the grant period, including evaluation of grant impact on the target population.

Announcement Date: Friday, November 2, 2012

Request for Applications Release Date: Tuesday, November 6, 2012

Deadline: Tuesday, December 4, 2012

Funds: $90,000 total is available to fund up to two (2) awards.
