Agency Management

OBJECTIVE 1: Improve multi-agency collaboration and planning and encourage data-driven decision making by providing CJCC members with updated information and analysis.

INITIATIVE 1.1: Provide research and data analysis in support of the Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI) in the District of Columbia

- Partially Achieved (91.6%): 11 of the planned 12 JDAI sessions and reports were issued on time. This initiative was partially completed due to staff turn-over.

INITIATIVE 1.2: Provide analytical reports in support of Partnership for Success (formerly Juvenile Stat) sessions

- Partially Achieved (91.6%): 11 of the planned 12 sessions and reports were issued on time. One of the scheduled meetings had to be cancelled due to staff availability. It co-occurred during CSSD and DYRS' 3rd annual youth call-in.

OBJECTIVE 2: Provide a multi-agency structure to facilitate strategic planning, tracking priorities, evaluating progress, generating reports and implementing pilot projects.

INITIATIVE 2.1: Provide a public safety strategic planning session for identifying citywide priorities.

- Partially Achieved (91.6%): 11 of the planned 12 strategic planning sessions were held on time. One sessions was not held due to staff availability.

INITIATIVE 2.2: Technical assistance and training.

- Fully Achieved: During FY 2013 CJCC held four brown-bags on research and statistics (See initiative 2.3), 23 trainings to use JUSTIS, our information sharing portal, one Juvenile Justice Summit, and one Synthetic Drug Symposium. More specifically, the third annual Juvenile Justice Summit was held in September of 2012. The summit is a training and collaboration opportunity for juvenile justice workers. The 3rd Annual Juvenile Justice Summit focused on the myriad of issues facing youth (and by extension their families) returning to their communities after secure or non-secure confinement. Topics included: school reengagement, employment as a recidivism tool, unpacking the interstate compacts, the status of deinstitutionalization of status offenders in the District, reconnecting returning teen parents, integrated case management and a discussion with successfully returning youth. These sessions highlighted critical issues that affect returning youth, while also providing a forum for collaborative resolutions.

INITIATIVE 2.3: Research and analysis.

- Fully Achieved (100%): The SAC released 1 out of 1 planned research reports.

OBJECTIVE 3: Assist member agencies with information sharing across the federal and local criminal justice system.

INITIATIVE 3.1: Enhance existing and develop new architecture in JUSTIS to support user requests and needs.

Fully Complete: CJCC successfully completed all planned JUSTIS infrastructure upgrades during FY2013

INITIATIVE 3.2: GunStat Sessions.

Fully Achieved (100%): 12 of the planned 12 GunStat sessions and reports were issued on time.
