Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC). The Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC) registration form is now live on OPGS' website. The GIRC provides technical assistance and information about resources that improve community services in the District of Columbia for its "customers" - District government, nonprofit, and faith-based representatives. The primary focus is to assist customers who either lack computer access or the knowledge to best use their existing computer technology to strengthen their organizations. The GIRC is open Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 10 a.m.-12 p.m. and 2 p.m.-4 p.m., by appointment only. For additional information call 202-727-8900.

Funding Alert: If you would like to post a free event/resource announcement in the Funding Alert, contact Pat Henry at pat.henry@dc.gov. All back issues of the funding alert can be found at www.opgs.dc.gov.

District Grants Clearinghouse: District agency grant opportunities are listed in the Funding Alert. These opportunities can be found on the Office of Partnerships and Grant Services website at www.opgs.dc.gov. All information that should be posted to the Clearinghouse should be sent to dcgrants@dc.gov.

State Single Point of Contact (SPOC): The Office of Partnerships and Grant Services is the DC SPOC. The application is available online on OPGS's website at www.opgs.dc.gov select State Single Point of Contact. If you need additional information call Pat Henry at (202) 727-0946.

Wanting to Do Good: The Requirements and Pitfalls of Starting a Nonprofit in DC. The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center is hosting a webinar "Wanting to Do Good: The Requirements and Pitfalls of Starting a Nonprofit in DC. on Wednesday, July 19, 12:00pm-1:00pm. A tax-exempt nonprofit organization can be both deeply rewarding and tremendously challenging. Many nonprofit founders are motivated by a desire to do well or to fulfill an important, unmet need in their community. However, starting a tax-exempt nonprofit also involves complex state and federal laws. It is important to ensure that your organization starts with the proper legal foundation. This webinar is intended to provide guidance to those interested in setting up tax-exempt nonprofit in the District of Columbia and to help them navigate state and federal laws. For more information and to register visit Webinar Registration .

Pro Bono Public Relations Opportunity. The Washington Women in Public Relations (WWPR) a professional organization is announcing the opportunity for nonprofit organization to receive a two-year period of public relations support and strategy support beginning January 2018. Nonprofit organizations serving women and/or children in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area are invited to apply to work with WWPR's Pro Bono Committee. WWPR has provided public relations support and strategy to local organizations since its formation in 1992. As part of a 350-member organization dedicated to serving women in the public relations and communications fields, WWPR's Pro Bono Committee is exclusively focused on helping its client achieve and amplify the impact of its key communications objectives during the two-year term. The scope of services varies depending on an organization's needs, and may include strategic planning, branding, messaging, media training, media outreach and monitoring, event planning, digital communication and/or website support, social media engagement, or other communications related services. Deadline for application is July 31. Organizations interested in applying for this program must
