Additional Funding Resources and Announcements

Creating Sustainable Funding from Individual Donors: A Proven Model. Benevon will be hosting a free workshop on Creating Sustainable Funding from Individual Donors: A Proven Model on Tuesday, October 23 from 10 am to 2 p.m. at the Foundation Center, 1627 K St NW. In this highly engaging session, you will learn how to implement a systematic process for engaging and developing relationships with mission-focused individual donors. You will also learn how to create a culture of philanthropy in your organization, how to make your organization more visible in your community, and how to identify and cultivate individual donors who are passionate about your mission. This model has been customized and implemented with all types of nonprofit organizations. Key organizational leadership, including board members, executive director or CEO, development director, and volunteers should register to attend. For more information contact Michelle Zendarski at 206-428-2144 michelle@benevon.com or visit <https://www.benevon.com/dc-free-seminar/>

Previous Funding Resources and Announcements

The Center for Juvenile Justice Reform Multi-System Collaboration TTA Program. The Center for Juvenile Justice Reform (CJJR), in partnership with the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention's Center for Coordinated Assistance to States (CCAS), has issued a request for applications from jurisdictions seeking to engage in multi-system improvement efforts. The Multi-System Collaboration Training and Technical Assistance Program (additional information) supports jurisdictions that are interested in developing or enhancing a sound infrastructure to promote multi-system approaches to serving at-risk, justice-involved youth and their families. On behalf of CCAS, CJJR the program will provide on-site and distance-learning training and technical assistance to a cohort of up to four jurisdictions—at no cost to the sites—to help them to identify gaps in policy and practice, enhance information sharing capacities, explore how key decision points impact the trajectory of the youth currently being served, develop an evaluation strategy for tracking systems- and youth-level outcomes, and sustain long-term system change. Deadline to apply is October 1, 2018.

In-Kind Support. The Washington Nationals provide in-kind support to military and nonprofit organizations located in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and Washington, DC. Support will be given in the form of in-kind donations, including game tickets and memorabilia from the Washington Nationals. For more information and to apply visit their website at <https://www.mlb.com/nationals/community/donations-fundraising> or contact Nationals Community Relations department at 202-640-7706.

Costco Wholesale Foundation. Costco Wholesale Foundation provides Grants and in-kind donations to nonprofit organizations for programs in the areas of human services, health, education, and children. This program is open to organizations operating in communities where Costco has a business presence. For an organization to receive a grant or an in-kind contribution the decision is based on several factors, including: type of program; identified community need not otherwise available; indication that evidenced based data will establish measureable results of intended outcomes; community collaboration; broad base of financial support; project budget and operating expenses.
