Previous Funding Resources and Announcements

Building a Budget, Understanding Allowable Expenses and Tying Cost Estimates into Budget Narratives Workshop. The DC Criminal Justice Coordinating Council's Grants Planning Committee cordially invites you to Building a Budget, Understanding Allowable Expenses and Tying Cost Estimates into Budget Narratives. This is the final training in the 2018 GPC Training Series, and will focus on helping government and non-profit partners understand best practices associated with building a program or grant-specific budget. Often given less attention than program narratives or project abstracts, budgets and budget narratives are critical to demonstrating that your organization understands what is needed to execute a proposed initiative or intervention. Through this training, attendees will hear directly from grant-makers on best practices, common mistakes, and tricks to improving your ability to build a budget for a fundable project. The Training will be held on, Wednesday, October 24th from 10AM-12PM at 441 4th Street NW, 11th Floor – Room 1117. To register visit <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/building-a-budget-understanding-allowable-expenses-and-tying-cost-estimates-into-budget-narratives-tickets-50688856735> .

Many Hands Foundation FY2019 Grant Applications. Nonprofit organizations serving women, children, and families in the Washington DC area are available to apply for the Many Hands Foundation 2019 grant award. Four grants are awarded each year up to $100,000. Letters of Intent are required from organizations interested in applying for the grant. The Many Hands Grants committee reviews the LOI's and qualified organizations will be referred to one of four Focus Area Committees -- Education, Health, Housing and Job Readiness -- for further consideration. In April, each Focus Area Committee will request detailed financial information from the three organizations it considers best suited to receive the $100,000 grant. In May, each committee will select one finalist to present to Many Hands donors for a vote. One organization will receive $100,000. Other finalists will receive smaller grants. Last year, the smaller grants were $40,500 each. For more information and to apply visit the "Apply for a Grant" section of the web site at www.manyhandsdc.org and complete the Letter of Intent form and Grant Application by October 26.

The Renewal Awards. The Renewal Awards program, sponsored by The Atlantic and the Allstate Insurance Company, was created to celebrate the social innovation demonstrated by nonprofit organizations that are finding creative solutions to America's most pressing problems. The program recognizes these organizations and individuals as they drive positive change in their communities, and helps them make an even bigger impact. Five winners will each receive $20,000 in funding from Allstate; one of the winners will additionally be presented with the Allstate Youth Empowerment Award. The nomination deadline is November 30, 2018. To review the official rules and submit an online nomination visit <https://www.theatlantic.com/renewal-awards/> .

The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards. The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards is a nationwide program that honors young people in grades five to twelve who are volunteering in their communities. The program's goals are to applaud young people who already are making a positive difference in their towns and neighborhoods, and to inspire others to think about how they might contribute to their communities. Youth who have engaged in a volunteer activity that occurred during the twelve months prior to the date of application are eligible to apply. Local Honorees are selected in late fall and from those winners two State Honorees (one middle level school student and one high school student) are chosen in each state and the District of Columbia. State Honorees receive an award of $1,000 and an all-expenses-paid trip to Washington, DC, for national recognition events. Out of the State Honorees, ten National Honorees are selected to receive an additional award of $5,000 as well as a $5,000 grant for a nonprofit organization of their choice. The application deadline is November 6, 2018. Visit the Prudential website for online application information at <https://spirit.prudential.com/about/program-overview>

Art and Humanities Grants. The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (CAH) requests applications from eligible District-based nonprofit organizations for grants to support various projects that promote arts and humanities activities to a diverse range of communities, as identified in the aforementioned legislation. Grant awards are competitive and subject to the availability of funds. All grant applications must be submitted online. For more information and to submit an application, please visit: <https://dcarts.dc.gov/page/current-grant-opportunities>. Deadline to apply is Friday, October 19.

Creating Sustainable Funding from Individual Donors: A Proven Model. Benevon will be hosting a free workshop on Creating Sustainable Funding from Individual Donors: A Proven Model on Tuesday, October 23 from 10 am to 2 p.m. at the Foundation Center, 1627 K St NW. In this highly engaging session, you will learn how to implement a systematic process for engaging and developing relationships with mission-focused individual donors. You will also learn how to create a culture of philanthropy in your organization, how to make your organization more visible in your community, and how to identify and cultivate individual donors who are passionate about your mission. This model has been customized and implemented with all types of nonprofit organizations. Key organizational leadership, including board members, executive director or CEO, development director, and volunteers should register to attend. For more information contact Michelle Zendarski at 206-428-2144 michelle@benevon.com or visit <https://www.benevon.com/dc-free-seminar/>

In-Kind Support. The Washington Nationals provide in-kind support to military and nonprofit organizations located in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and Washington, DC. Support will be given in the form of in-kind donations, including game tickets and memorabilia from the Washington Nationals. For more information and to apply visit their website at <https://www.mlb.com/nationals/community/donations-fundraising> or contact Nationals Community Relations department at 202-640-7706.

Costco Wholesale Foundation. Costco Wholesale Foundation provides Grants and in-kind donations to nonprofit organizations for programs in the areas of human services, health, education, and children. This program is open to organizations operating in communities where Costco has a business presence. For an organization to receive a grant or an in-kind contribution the decision is based on several factors, including: type of program; identified community need not otherwise available; indication that evidenced based data will establish measureable results of intended outcomes; community collaboration; broad base of financial support; project budget and operating expenses. For more information visit <https://www.costco.com/charitable-giving.html>

Culture of Health Prize. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation is accepting applications for the Culture of Health Prize. This award recognizes communities nationwide that have placed a priority on health and are creating powerful partnerships and deep commitments that will enable everyone, especially those facing the greatest barriers to good health, the opportunity to live well. A Culture of Health recognizes that health and well-being are greatly influenced by where we live, learn, work, and play; the safety of our surroundings; and the relationships we have in our families and communities. The Prize elevates the compelling stories of local leaders and community members who together are transforming neighborhoods, schools, businesses, and more—so that better health flourishes everywhere. The deadline to submit an application is November 1, 2018. For more information visit <https://www.rwjf.org/en/library/funding-opportunities/2017/chr-prize6.html> .
