humanities or arts education or to provide technical assistance for District artists, arts educators and humanities practitioners. All applications must be submitted online by February 15, 2019. For more information and to submit an application, please visit: <https://dcarts.dc.gov/page/current-grant-opportunities>.

Mini-Grants for Youth Service Projects: America's Promise Alliance: Power of Youth Challenge.

The Power of Youth Challenge, an initiative of America's Promise Alliance, invites youth from across the country to bring positive change to their communities by leading social service projects. Teams made up of at least three young people, ages 13 to 18, will have access to a mini-grant of up to $250, with the amount determined by project needs. Teams who complete their projects will be eligible to apply for an accelerator grant of up to $5,000 to grow their projects over the next year. The deadline for team registration is March 31, 2019. Visit the Power of Youth Challenge website to review the eligibility criteria and application process at <http://www.americaspromise.org/program-page/power-youth-challenge>.

Mayor Marion S. Barry – Summer Youth Employment Program. Applications are now available. Please share this information with District youth (age 14 to 24) who are interested in finding a summer job? They can join the Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) and get paid through the DC Department of Employment Services. They will earn money, gain meaningful work experience and develop the skills necessary to succeed in today's world of work. Visit <https://webapps.does.dc.gov/OYP/OYPHome.html> for more information.

Previous Funding Resources and Announcements

Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington. Applications to the Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington are now available. Being part of the Catalogue network means you will be recognized as “one of the best” high-impact, community-based nonprofits in the region – something that means so much to supporters, both existing and new. The Catalogue assists our nonprofit partners with fundraising and since 2003 has helped them to raise over $40 million. In addition, the Catalogue provides its partners with high-quality capacity-building free of charge. Applications are due on Monday, February 11th. For information visit cfp-dc.org/apply.

Office of the State Superintendent of Education - Gateway to Careers Grant (OSSE). OSSE is announcing that the Gateway to Careers Request for Applications (RFA) has been released. The RFA pre-application conference date and registration link, as well as other grant related information can be found at <https://osse.dc.gov/page/adult-education-providers-and-partners#grants>.

Request for Proposals, Capitol View Neighborhood Library Public Art Project. The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (CAH) with the District of Columbia Public Library is seeking professional proposals from local artists or artist teams for the design, fabrication and installation of a permanent work of public art on the plaza area of the renovated Capitol View Neighborhood Library, 5001 Central Avenue, SE, Washington, DC. Awards are available up to $30,000. All applications must be submitted online. For more information and to submit an application, please visit: <https://dcarts.dc.gov/page/current-grant-opportunities>.
