Additional Funding Resources and Announcements

Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington. Applications to the Catalogue for Philanthropy: Greater Washington are now available. Being part of the Catalogue network means you will be recognized as “one of the best” high-impact, community-based nonprofits in the region – something that means so much to supporters, both existing and new. The Catalogue assists our nonprofit partners with fundraising and since 2003 has helped them to raise over $40 million. In addition, the Catalogue provides its partners with high-quality capacity-building free of charge. Applications are due on Monday, February 11th. For information visit cfp-dc.org/apply.

Office of the State Superintendent of Education - Gateway to Careers Grant (OSSE). OSSE is announcing that the Gateway to Careers Request for Applications (RFA) has been released. The RFA pre-application conference date and registration link, as well as other grant related information can be found at <https://osse.dc.gov/page/adult-education-providers-and-partners#grants>.

Introduction to Finding Grants. Foundation Center Northeast is hosting an Introduction to Finding Grants Thursday, January 24 from 10:00 am - 11:30 am at 1627 K Street, NW Third Floor. At this workshop you will learn the 10 most important things you need to know about finding grants, including; who funds nonprofits and what are their motivations; what do funders really want to know about the organizations they are interested in funding; how do you identify potential funders and make the first approach; and in-person classes will end with 30 minutes of hands-on, guided online grant research. It is advisable, but not necessary, to bring a laptop/tablet for this portion of the class. For more information visit Introduction to Finding Grants.
