Introduction

If you're reading this, it's likely your high school is hosting a DC College Application Week event. Senior year is a wonderful, exciting, transitional time. You may spend the year thinking and preparing for graduation and prom, but you should also be getting ready for college! There are many steps involved in going to college, from researching schools to find a good fit, to gathering all the information you need in order to complete an application, to actually applying. Then there is the financial aid step: you'll need to fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), DC OneApp for the DC Tuition Assistance Grant (DC TAG) and apply for as many scholarships as you can. Once you are accepted into a college, you'll need to confirm with them you are attending and find out the steps they require in order for you to enroll and be ready for your first day of classes.

This seems like a ton of things to keep track of—and there are many steps involved—so we've made this guide to break down the steps you need to take to apply to college. Utilize the worksheets and resources that fit your college path best. Not every worksheet will apply to every senior.

Remember the application process is just one step. In addition to this guide, we encourage you to visit www.knowhow2go.acenet.edu/middle-and-high-school-students.html to know the steps to college.

During DC College Application Week, we encourage you to use the hashtags #IApplied to tell us where you apply to college.

Steps to take PRIOR to completing a college application

Senior Checklist: Prior to Filling out an Application..

- ✓ Explore Postsecondary Schools
  - Visit www.bigfuture.collegeboard.org/college-search, while logged in; check out colleges and universities by selecting College Search. The College Search feature will help you choose which postsecondary schools best meet your needs. There are several different characteristics you can choose from including Academics & Scores, Size & Environment, Sports & Activities, Cost of Attendance, and Majors. Once you have selected the options that best meet your needs, you may view a list of matching schools.
  - www.collegegreenlight.com to explore and compare colleges in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and across the country. You can create an account for results tailored to your strengths and interests, or you can dive right in to searching for colleges for a broad overview of each school that interests you. You can also read reviews about each college from current or former students, get a tuition estimate, and determine how well-matched you are to a particular college.
- ✓ Save your Favorite Schools
  - Make a note of the schools that stand out to you. Use the Student Interest Survey on the next page, a Word or Excel document, or even a notebook – just make sure you know where to find your list! Once you start identifying schools, you should make sure you are familiar with all of their deadlines and requirements.
- ✓ Find out the Application Deadline(s)
  - While you are researching colleges, find out what deadlines, if any, campuses have for applications. This information can be found on the college's website. Some schools will not accept applications after a certain date, so if you have a favorite school, make sure to find out early in your search the application schedule.
- ✓ Identify Application Fee(s)
  - Many colleges require an application fee when you submit an online application. You can find this information on the college's website. Unless you have a fee waiver from your school counselor, you need to be prepared to enter a credit/debit card number or mail a check once you complete your online application. If you think you may be eligible for an application fee waiver contact your high school counselor.
- ✓ What if you are required to submit an admission essay or personal statement?
  - Make sure you write your essay before the event! Bring your essay(s) with you on a flash/jump drive you can use to copy and paste into your online application. Make sure you have a hard copy as well for back-up. You will be able to upload your essay file or copy and paste it during the online application session. Visit www.bigfuture.collegeboard.org/get-in/essays for tips on writing an essay.
- ✓ Read the Introduction and Instructions Page on the Online Application.
  - Take your time and read the introductions and instructions of each college's online application carefully. Every college has different requirements and instructions for applicants. The introduction page will offer helpful hints to guide you through the process specific to each college and keep you informed every step of the way.

Student Interest Survey

Notes: The following forms can be used to determine which schools you are interested in and whether you meet the minimum requirements. They are optional and should be used PRIOR to DC College Application Week.

College Application Checklist - Optional

Below is a list of information you will likely need in order to complete your online college application(s). Completing this worksheet is optional and its purpose is to help you, the student, be organized and well-prepared when submitting your college application. Please note that some of the information in this checklist, such as the questions related to citizenship status and family income, may seem sensitive or challenging to share. Many colleges ask for this information to best determine the types of financial aid students are eligible for and what other resources may be available. If you have further questions about how to share this information, please reach out to a counselor or trusted college adviser.

We suggest you bring this completed worksheet with you when you are ready to apply, if you choose to use this optional tool. Note that not all college applications require the same information. Because each college or university has its own application process, this checklist is comprehensive and can be used to help guide seniors on any question they may be asked. Some of these answers can even be used on additional application components, such as essays or guidelines for letters of recommendation. Begin compiling this list early, preferably as soon as you start school in the fall, so you have plenty of time to track down all of the information and think critically about some of the more open-ended questions.

Applications for Colleges and Universities Frequently Asked Questions

Applications for college and universities can be confusing. The following information includes frequently asked questions you may have when completing college application.

Enrollment Information

What is my entering term and year? Most students will select the fall semester following senior year; however, choose the summer option if you intend to take summer classes prior to fall enrollment.

What is my entrance status? The following are definitions for each status.

Freshman: This will be the first college in which you enroll after graduating high school. Check this even if you have advanced placement (AP) credit, or dual enrollment, or have earned college credit in high school.

Transfer: If you are graduating high school in 2016 and going directly to college, you are not a transfer student even if you have college credit.

Non Degree: You want to take college course(s) but are not seeking a degree.

What is my desired major? Under First Choice, you can choose your first choice of majors. You may select "Undecided." Please note that you can change your major during your college career.

Address

Can I list a Post Office Box? You will need to also include a physical address if you use a Post Office Box for your mailing address. Make sure this information is correct. The date the address became your permanent mailing address is the month and year you moved to this location which may even be your date of birth.

Personal Information

What types of personal information will I need to provide? Social Security Number: Enter your nine digit social security number. This information is not required, but preferred.

College Information

What should I list for current college courses in progress or planned, including the term (to be) taken, course subject and number (example: BIO 1001), credit hours, and college/university? You will want to list dual enrollment courses; however, do not list AP courses.

Family Information

What family information am I required to submit? You may need to answer the following question: Are your father and/or mother living? Also, Legal Guardian Information is the same information requested for father and mother and Emergency Contact Information is required if it is other than parent or guardian.

Activities and Interests

Do I have to list all my activities and interests for each college application? Some colleges and universities may ask this question but it is not required.

Campus Specific Information

What additional information will I need to include for each college application? This information varies by educational institution. You can find more information on <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/college-search> or the institution's website.

Or

<http://www.collegeresults.org/>

Miscellaneous Information

What types of questions will I be asked about my past criminal activity?

You may be asked the following questions regarding past criminal activity and may be asked to explain the circumstances. Note that some institutions may request further information at a later date.

1. Have you been convicted of a crime? (Yes or No)
2. Have you entered a plea of guilty, a plea of no contest, a plea of nolo contendere, or an Alford plea, or have you received a deferred prosecution or prayer for judgment continued, to a criminal charge? (Yes or No)
3. Have you otherwise accepted responsibility for the commission of a crime? (Yes or No)
4. Do you have any criminal charges pending against you? (Yes or No)
5. Have you ever been expelled, dismissed, suspended, placed on probation, or otherwise subject to any disciplinary sanction by any school, college, or university? (Yes or No)
6. If you have ever served in the military, did you receive any type of discharge other than an honorable discharge? (Yes, No, Currently Serving, or Never Served)

Application Personal Statement and Essay

You may need to complete an essay as part of your application. This is your opportunity to show admissions officers who you are and to provide information about yourself that didn't fit in other areas of your application. The essay also reveals what you can do when you have time to think and work on a writing project.

Choose a Topic That Will Highlight You

Don't focus on the great aspects of a particular college, the amount of dedication it takes to be a doctor or the number of extracurricular activities you took part in during high school.

Do share your personal story and thoughts, take a creative approach and highlight areas that aren't covered in other parts of the application, like your high school records.

Keep Your Focus Narrow and Personal

Don't try to cover too many topics. This will make the essay sound like a résumé that doesn't provide any details about you.

Do focus on one aspect of yourself so the readers can learn more about who you are. Remember that the readers must be able to find your main idea and follow it from beginning to end. Ask a parent or teacher to read just your introduction and tell you what he or she thinks your essay is about.

Show, Don't Tell

Don't simply state a fact to get an idea across, such as "I like to surround myself with people with a variety of backgrounds and interests."

Do include specific details, examples, reasons, and so on to develop your ideas. For the example above, describe a situation when you were surrounded by various types of people. What were you doing? Whom did you talk with? What did you take away from the experience?

Use Your Own Voice

Don't rely on phrases or ideas that people have used many times before. These could include statements like, "There is so much suffering in the world that I feel I have to help people." Avoid overly formal or business-like language, and don't use unnecessary words.

Do write in your own voice. For the above example, you could write about a real experience that you had and how it made you feel you had to take action. And note that admissions officers will be able to tell if your essay was written by an adult.

Ask a Teacher or Parent to Proofread

Don't turn your essay in without proofreading it, and don't rely only on your computer's spell check to catch mistakes. A spell-check program will miss typos like these:

- "After I graduate form high school, I plan to get a summer job."
- "From that day on, Daniel was my best fried."

Do ask a teacher or parent to proofread your essay to catch mistakes. You should also ask the person who proofreads your essay if the writing sounds like you.

Trade/Vocational School Information

Trade or vocational schools offer programs that focus on providing graduates with the job-specific skills needed for their chosen career path. Rather than requiring students to study a diverse curriculum made up of different subjects, trade schools emphasize only those fields that are relevant to the student's future profession. Below are brief descriptions of the four community Colleges, offering trade certificate programs, located in the DC Metro area.

- ✓ Montgomery College is a public, open access community college located in Montgomery County, Maryland, just outside Washington, D.C. The college has three campuses, the largest of which is in Rockville. Its other campuses are in Takoma Park/ Silver Spring and Germantown. Its Off-campus sites include the Business Training Center in Gaithersburg and Westfield South in Wheaton, which are operated by the college's Workforce Development and Continuing Education Division. The college is noted as being one of the most ethnically and culturally diverse in the nation, with students from over 170 countries enrolled.
<http://cms.montgomerycollege.edu/edu/>
- ✓ Northern Virginia Community College, informally known as NOVA, is composed of six campuses and four centers located in the Northern Virginia suburbs of Washington, D.C. NOVA is the second largest multi-campus community college in the United States and the largest educational institution in the Commonwealth of Virginia. NOVA's campuses are: Alexandria, Annandale, Loudoun, Manassas, MEC (Springfield) and Woodbridge. The educational centers are: Arlington, Reston, and Innovation Park. NOVA is also one of the most internationally diverse colleges in the United States, with a student body consisting of individuals from more than 30 countries.
<http://www.nvcc.edu/index.html>
- ✓ Prince George's Community College is a community college located in the unincorporated community of Largo in Prince George's County, Maryland. The main campus is located in Largo and PGCC operates extension centers at University Town Center in Hyattsville, and Andrews Air Force Base as well as Skilled Trades Center in Camp Springs. The college Shares an extension center with Howard Community College in Laurel called the Laurel College Center. PGCC serves Prince Georges County, Maryland and surrounding areas, including Washington, DC. The student body is 76% African American. 64% female, and has international students from 100 nations around the world. <http://www.pgcc.edu/>
- ✓ The University of the District of Columbia Community College (UDC-CC) is an open enrollment, public community college located in Washington, D.C. It operates the Associate Degree, Certificate, Continuing Education and Workforce Development Programs that are offered by the University of the District of Columbia. your college applications*

Senior Checklist

After filling out an application...

- ✓ Make sure your application fee has been paid. If you completed an online application, you likely paid your application fee using a fee waiver or credit card before you could submit the application. If you submitted a paper application, make sure you sent in a check or fee waiver to cover your application fee. Some schools don't require an application fee, so keep track of this while you are applying.
- ✓ Make sure your transcripts have been sent. Follow up with the colleges where you have applied to ensure they received your transcript and all the necessary documents that went along with your application.
- ✓ Create an ID for your FAFSA. Both students and parents will need a FAFSA ID. Do this early and write down your ID – you'll need it every year you apply!
- ✓ Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You CAN afford to go to college – fill out the FAFSA to unlock thousands of dollars in grants and loans. Complete the FAFSA as soon as possible after January 1. www.fafsa.ed.gov/
- ✓ Apply for DC TAG. Complete your DC OneApp. DC TAG provides up to $10,000 per year for college tuition. Funds are limited. Apply early beginning February 1. www.osse.dc.gov/service/dc-tuition-assistance-grant-dc-tag
- ✓ Apply for scholarships. There are thousands of scholarship dollars available, based on both need and merit. Contact your local college access organization, ask your counselor, and research local scholarships available in your community and national scholarships. www.c3n-dc.com/Scholarships
- ✓ Accept an admission offer. Schools have a deadline, usually around May 1, by which you need to confirm you are attending. Once you start getting offer letters, research each school's deadline and make sure you confirm your attendance in time.
- ✓ Figure out next steps for the summer. Aside from buying books and dorm decorations, you will likely need to take placement exams and attend orientation. Make sure you know your college's placement exam and orientation schedules, and SIGN UP EARLY. You'll be scheduling courses at orientation, and you want to make sure you get the first choice!
- ✓ Have a wonderful first day of college and a wonderful semester!
